

The Journal OF THE House of Representatives

Number 11

Wednesday, March 18, 2015

The House was called to order by the Speaker at 2:00 p.m.

Prayer

The following prayer was offered by Dr. Edison Jackson, President of Bethune-Cookman University of Daytona Beach, upon invitation of Rep. Taylor:

O God, Father of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. God, our help in ages past, You have been our rock in a weary land, our shelter in times of storm, the One who has guided us along the paths of life, shielding us from danger seen and unseen. God, we come to You now to say thank You this afternoon. Thank You for Your grace and mercy that sustains us. As we assemble in the House of Representatives, I pray that You bless each of us with the gift of remembrance. Let us remember those who have lived and died that this nation might be known as the land of the free and the home of the brave. Let us never forget the long nights of sweet prayers whispered by our loved ones who hope that each of us might have a chance to know liberty and justice for all. God, from this House to the White House, let the wisdom of Your spirit guide our nation's leaders. Bless and strengthen Governor Rick Scott. Extend Your hand of lesson to each of our state legislators who assembled in this place today. When it seems that all supporters are gone, I ask that You stand in solidarity with the least of these in our communities. Teach us to love one another. Protect members of our armed forces who serve to protect this land we call home. We thank You, God, for hearing our spoken and unspoken prayers today. Thank You most of all for answering our petitions. It is in Your matchless name we pray. Amen.

House Resolutions

HR 9029—A resolution honoring Bethune-Cookman University and designating March 18, 2015, as "Wildcat Day" in the State of Florida.

WHEREAS, on October 3, 1904, Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune, with "five girls, $1.50, and faith in God," founded the Daytona Educational and Industrial Training School for Negro Girls in Daytona Beach, which would become Bethune-Cookman College in 1931, and

WHEREAS, through the tenacity of Mary McLeod Bethune, the Daytona Educational and Industrial Training School for Negro Girls grew from an all-girls elementary school to Bethune-Cookman College, launching its first master's degree program in 2006 and achieving university status in early 2007, and

WHEREAS, with a current total enrollment of 4,045 students, Bethune-Cookman University offers 33 majors through nine academic schools and colleges, including four graduate degree programs; maintains intercollegiate athletic programs and instrumental and choral groups that have achieved national recognition; and is one of three private historically black colleges and universities in the state, and

WHEREAS, on March 20, 2013, after serving almost 11 months as interim president, Dr. Edison O. Jackson accepted the appointment to become the sixth president of Bethune-Cookman University, bringing with him a wealth of experience and knowledge in administering the affairs of educational institutions, and

WHEREAS, Bethune-Cookman University strives to develop global leaders who are committed to service, lifelong learning, and diversity by providing a faith-based environment of academic excellence and transformative experiences, and

WHEREAS, to further develop today's global leaders, the university partnered with the Institute of International Education (IIE) in 2014 to launch Generation Study Abroad, a 5-year initiative that brings leaders in education, business, and governments together to double the number of United States college students studying abroad, and

WHEREAS, Bethune-Cookman University's motto, "Enter to learn. Depart to serve," represents a call to action for 21st-century learners to empower themselves and others, connect with their communities, and influence the world around them, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That March 18, 2015, is designated as "Wildcat Day" in the State of Florida in recognition of Bethune-Cookman University's contribution as an outstanding institution of higher education.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be presented to the president of Bethune-Cookman University, Dr. Edison O. Jackson, as a tangible token of the sentiments expressed herein.

HR 9025—A resolution designating April 2015 as "Autism Awareness Month" in the State of Florida.

WHEREAS, autism spectrum disorder is a lifelong developmental disability resulting in impairment of an individual's ability to learn, develop healthy interactive behaviors, and understand verbal, nonverbal, and reciprocal communication, and

WHEREAS, autism, the result of a neurological disorder affecting brain function, affects one in every 68 children and millions nationwide, but few understand this complex disorder, and

WHEREAS, although no cure for autism has been found, persons with the disability can receive help to reach their greatest potential with accurate, early diagnosis and appropriate education and intervention, which are vital components to the future growth and development of those affected by the disorder, and

WHEREAS, support groups, such as the National Autism Registry and the Florida affiliate of the Autism Society of America, have dedicated years of service to their ongoing efforts to promote awareness of the needs of persons with autism and to advocate for their rights, including the right to dignity, respect, and appropriate education and employment, while these groups also remain deeply committed to enabling families, professionals, and the general public to better understand the effects of this lifelong disability, and

WHEREAS, autism is a complex neurological disorder that requires continued research to find treatment options to help those affected by it and to provide families with education, awareness, and acceptance, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That April 2015 is designated as "Autism Awareness Month" in the State of Florida and that all citizens are encouraged to acknowledge the necessity for the continuing search for the cause of the disorder and a concerted effort to understand and support those individuals and their caregivers who are touched by this disability.

—was read and adopted by publication pursuant to Rule 10.17.

At the request of Rep. Porter—

HR 9027—A resolution recognizing April 2015 as "Springs Protection Awareness Month" in the State of Florida.

WHEREAS, Florida's springs are essential to the environment, economy, citizens, and visitors of this state, and

WHEREAS, Florida has one of the most productive aquifers in the world, which supports more than 900 natural springs and gives this state one of the world's highest concentrations of springs, and

WHEREAS, the groundwater supply is vital to the state's economy, and approximately 93 percent of Florida residents rely on it for their drinking water, and

WHEREAS, Florida's springs reflect groundwater conditions and provide an important habitat for wildlife, making them a natural resource that must be protected, and

WHEREAS, springs provide important recreational resources and opportunities that are enjoyed by citizens and visitors of this state alike, and

WHEREAS, Florida's springs discharge nearly 8 billion gallons of water each day, and healthy springs reflect the State of Florida's commitment to sustainable groundwater and surface water resource protection, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida:

That April 2015 is recognized as "Springs Protection Awareness Month" in the State of Florida, and all levels of government are encouraged to support springs protection, restoration, and preservation awareness.

—was read and adopted by publication pursuant to Rule 10.17.
